EXPECTATIONS FOR GC KIDS VOLUNTEERS

As a volunteer, you are an essential part of our ministry. You will be the face where children will encounter the love of God, learn about Jesus, and look up to you as a volunteer and role model. With such a great responsibility, there are some expectations we have:

- You should have an active, growing, and personal relationship with the Lord.
- You must agree to submit to, and pass, a criminal background check. (Background checks will be performed through Checkr, you will receive an email from Grace Chapel later for the background check)
- Your heart must be committed to serving and consistently attend on-time when placed on the schedule.
- Our children come from diverse homes, living situations, and some may have experienced physical, mental, or spiritual trauma in their past. You must always be sensitive to children’s needs while serving in the ministry using a soft, kind tone, uplifting and encouraging words, and be gentle and kindhearted towards all children. Love our children like Jesus loves you!
- You should be engaging with our children and ministry activities.
- You should be able to sit or stand for extended periods of time as well as be able to bend over to reach the floor.
- You should be able to tend to children’s needs and participate in activities (when required) without compromising the child’s safety of your safety due to physical limitations or health conditions.
- For nursery and preschool, you should be comfortable with changing diapers.
